25X1 [redacted] OC-ED/SEG, attended the 182nd meeting of the Federal Telecommunications Standards Committee (FTSC) at the General Services Administration Building in Washington, D.C. The FTSC, which consists of senior telecommunications experts from 16 different federal agencies, meets on a monthly basis to rule on the technical adequacy of draft federal telecommunications standards for formal coordination with government agencies and the private sector.

25X1 b. On the morning of 10 December, [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] attended a meeting of the National Communications System (NCS) Funding Allocation Subcommittee (FAS). The FAS was established by the NCS Council of Representatives to examine alternative methods for funding the NCS National Level Program (NLP). The subcommittee recently completed a report recommending a temporary funding method to be used for the Fiscal Year 1990 NLP and is now in the process of examining other methods that could be used on a permanent basis.

25X1 c. On the afternoon of 10 December, [redacted] 25X1 [redacted] attended the monthly meeting of the National Communications System Telecommunications Planning Process Subcommittee. The meeting was dedicated to reviewing a draft document of the proposed Fiscal Year 1990 National Level Program.
